May 1st, 1988

Dear M. Bannerman:

I am directed by the Government of Tunisia to write to you confirming the understanding between the Government of Tunisia and "Bannerman and Associates". As we discussed, "Bannerman and Associates" will advise and assist the Government of Tunisia in addressing legislative and other concerns in Washington with the objective of further developing and consolidating the already excellent relations between Tunisia and the United States of America.

In doing so, "Bannerman and Associates" will work with the Embassy of Tunisia in Washington, D.C., supplementing its efforts and advising its staff as to the best approach in order to reach the objectives set by the Government of Tunisia and its Embassy.

"Bannerman and Associates" will be paid an annual fee of 96,000 US dollars (Ninety six thousand US dollars) by the Government of Tunisia. "Bannerman and Associates" will undertake to defray all establishment and local costs in Washington while the Government of Tunisia will bear the expenses of travel and incidental costs out of Washington made at the request of the Government of Tunisia.

This arrangement between the Government of Tunisia and "Bannerman and Associates" comes into effect on May 1st, 1988 and expires on April 30th, 1989. It may be, at any time extended or renewed by mutual agreement.

Looking forward to a very fruitful cooperation, I remain,

sincerely yours

The Government of Bangladesh are desirous of enlisting the services of Mr. M. Graeme Bannerman, President of Bannerman and Associates of Washington D.C. primarily with the objective of further developing and consolidating the already existing excellent relations between Bangladesh and the United States of America.

Mr. Bannerman will be paid his annual fees of 108,000 US dollars (One hundred and eight thousand US dollars) by the Government of Bangladesh. Mr. Bannerman will undertake to defray all establishment and local costs in Washington while the Government of Bangladesh will bear the expenses of travel and incidental costs out of Washington.

Mr. Bannerman will help develop contacts and relationships and promote goodwill with personalities in the US Government, the Congress and such other persons, groups and organisations as may be necessary for the promotion of Bangladesh interests in the USA. In so doing, Mr. Bannerman would be cooperating with and supplementing the efforts of Bangladesh Embassy in Washington in this regard.

The arrangement between the Government of Bangladesh and Mr. M. Graeme Bannerman comes into effect on March 1, 1988 and will, at the option of the Government of Bangladesh or Mr. Bannerman, be renewed from year to year.

The fees mentioned above will be paid annually in advance by the Embassy of Bangladesh in Washington.
